

RUS NY sets organizational meeting

from RUS NY

Milford, NY --- RUS NY will be hosting an organizational meeting at 5:30 p.m. Monday (Dec. 12) at Jocelyn Gale's home.

This is a very important meeting where a lot of decisions will be made for the 2017 season. Anyone who wants to participate in RUS NY events is highly encouraged to attend.

Voting will be held to elect the group's management committee. RUS NY President Michelle Miller has put together a presentation that will include financial information, highlights of the 2016 season and goals moving forward. Discussion about the District 8 meeting and awards banquet will also take place.

Not sure what racing under saddle is all about, but would like to learn more? This meeting is a good time to find out and see how to get involved.

Gale resides at 6157 Cooper Street in Vernon, N.Y. Those who cannot physically attend are encouraged to contact Michelle Miller at mnmiller84@gmail.com with their e-mail and phone number. We will be inviting people through Google Hangout Video Call so that we can include as many people as possible. If this form of communication does not work for everyone we may be able to figure out an alternative way to get everyone involved (we have a few that use FaceTime) so please contact Miller as soon as possible.

We do not only need committed owners, trainers and riders to get involved, but need people who are just enthusiastic about the sport and want to help. Anybody can become a member of the group, not just those from New York.
