Clear Vision provides Brett Miller with one of his four victories on Saturday at The Meadowlands.

Miller took home the biggest prize of the night, piloting multi-millionaire Clear Vision to an open-length win in the $18,000 featured event for upper level conditioned pacers.

Miller took no prisoners from the beginning and put the Jennifer Lappe trained 11-year-old right on the front. He blazed away through a half-mile in :54.4 and three quarters in 1:22.3 before drawing away to win by five lengths in 1:51.3.

Alberto Contador, who had won back-to-back Big M starts earlier this winter was second. The 6-5 favorite, Rockeyed Optimist, was third.

Miller teamed up with trainer Amber Buter for a pair of dominant wins with City Hall and Dateline Hanover. Gingras's five wins included a pair for leading trainer Ron Burke.

Jim Marohn Jr. won two races including the Dash For the G-Notes series final with Prince Palani.

Marohn also won the finale with P L Idaho that helped one lucky ticket purchased through the Oregon Hub hit the Jackpot Super High-Five for $52,744.

Total handle was $2,581,495 on the 12-race card.

Live racing resumes next Thursday (March 8) with a nine-race card. It is the final Thursday program of the season. Post time is 7:15 p.m.
