

Stirling Cadet wins Open Trot at Saratoga

By Mike Sardella

Melissa Simser-Iovino photo

Stirling Cadet (Conway Hall) went coast to coast to capture Sunday's (June 5) Open Trot at Saratoga Casino Hotel. The 5-year-old trotter continued a strong weekend for his connections as his trainer Jackie Rouse and driver Frank Coppola Jr. teamed up for a trio of Saturday (June 4) scores at the Spa. Stirling Cadet marched out to an easy lead in Sunday's (June 5) $15,000 Open and never had an anxious moment en route to prevailing in the local feature for the first time this season. One of three 3-1 shot co-favorites in the featured Trot, Stirling Cadet returned $8.10 to win in the race clocked in 1:54.3. On The Podium (Bruce Aldrich Jr) sat the pocket to the winner and held on for second while Crazy About Pat (Shawn Gray) came on for third. The exacta paid $77.50 while the triple came back $281.50. Stirling Cadet is owned by the Kellogg Racing Stables, LLC. Live racing resumes on Thursday (June 9) with a first post time set for 4:00 p.m.