

Cowgirl Hall pulls pocket to Meadows win by Evan Pattak

Cowgirl Hall pulls pocket to Meadows victory

Washington, PA---Cowgirl Hall pulled the pocket at the three-quarters and exploded to an insurmountable lead en route to victory in Tuesday's $20,000 Filly & Mare Winners Over $10,000 Life/Preferred Handicap Trot at The Meadows.

Cowgirl Hall made the early lead, but released Majestic Ginger at the quarter pole. When Dave Palone tipped Cowgirl Hall off the cones, the 6-year-old daughter of Cash Hall-Centerfold Hall ended the suspense early, scoring in 1:53.3. Whata Donato was second, three lengths back, with Broadway Socks third.

Ron Burke trains Cowgirl Hall, who extended her career bankroll to $728,553, for Burke Racing Stable, Weaver Brussemi LLC, Jack Piatt III and Michael Rosenthal.

Mike Wilder and Burke each enjoyed a triple on the 14-race card.

Wednesday's program at The Meadows features seven divisions of a $140,000 Pennsylvania Stallion Series stakes for freshman filly pacers. First post is 12:55 p.m.