

Aldrich wins six at Monticello

from Monticello Raceway

Monticello, NY---Prior to going to post for Tuesday's (June 30) first race at Monticello Raceway, driver Bruce Aldrich Jr. had 330 wins. At day's end he had 336. Aldrich ranks fourth nationally in wins, behind Cory Callahan with 355.

On a muddy afternoon with a track listed as sloppy, it did not deter Aldrich as he started the day in normal fashion for him on days he wins multiple races by sweeping both ends of the daily double with Perfect Raider and My Man Ben.

He came back to score in the fifth race with Lenny Mac for trainer Jose Godinez. His mount in the sixth race, Tymal Luckypink, was scratched. In the seventh race, Shark Treasure got him into the winner's circle, as he won by two lengths in 1:57.1. He came right back in the eighth to win with Excel Nine in the fastest race of the day on an off track in 1:55.3. He finished up the afternoon with Thiswayorthehighway for leading Monticello Trainer Robert Lounsbury, winning by a neck over One Shark Road.

When reached in the paddock after the last race the muddy Aldrich said, "Last night when I was looking at the program, I knew I had a shot for a good day, but I didn't think it was going to be this good!"

Thus far in 2015, Aldrich has driven his mounts in excess of $1,500,000 in earnings. The hard-working driver also doubles at Saratoga Raceway after the afternoon program at Monticello.
