Jimmer was a 1:55.2 winner in the Open Trot.

invader Can I Say (Bruce Aldrich Jr.) charged hard for third.

The Don Sherman trainee continues to have a sensational season which has now featured back-to-back jacks in the Open Trot at the Spa.

Reinsman Phil Fluet worked out a second over journey in Tuesday's $18,000 feature for Jimmer who tipped off cover around the final turn and out-trotted his rivals in the stretch. The 6-year-old highstepper stopped the timer in 1:55.2 for his seventh win of the 2015 campaign and third in a row.

Slugfest (Jay Randall), the defending Trotter of the Year at Saratoga, continued his terrific '15 season with another second place finish in the feature while Jimmer was dismissed at odds of 9-1 despite winning last Tuesday's Open while the exacta with Slugfest came back $80.50 and the triple paid $278.

Live racing continues on Wednesday night at Saratoga with a first post time set for 7:05 p.m.
