

NY-Breds shine in Breeders Crown Elims.

Dean Gillette photo

Fourth Dimension won the second elim in 1:54, a track record for freshman colt trotters.

Fourth Dimension (Chapter Seven-Corazon Blue Chip), with Brian Sears in the sulky, won the second elim in 1:54, a track record for freshman colt trotters.

Met's Hall took the early lead, though Fourth Dimension left alertly from post seven and found a good spot third past an opening fraction of :27.3. Before the :57 half, Fourth Dimension took to the outside and got the lead, rushing through a 1:25.4 three-quarters.

Fourth Dimension used a :28.1 final quarter to post a 1-1/4 length victory over Met's Hall. You Know You Do went first over late but couldn't get past Missile Hill, who split horses in the stretch. Missile Hill was third, Skyway Torpedo was fourth and You Know You

Do took the fifth spot, grabbing the final berth in next week's final.

Trained by Marcus Melander for owners Courant, Inc., Fourth Dimension paid $5.80.

Crazy Wow (Crazed-No Pan No Gain) left brightly in the second elimination of the open trot to take control of his six foes and go wire-to-wire, winning in 1:53 with Gingras completing the Open Trot driving sweep. Burke, who trained both elimination winners, schools the 5-year-old owned by Our Horse Cents Stable, Stable 45, J & T Silva Stables, Deo Volente Farms. He was bred by Peter Pan Stables.

Crazy Wow sped to the first quarter in :26.3, the half in :56.4 and three-quarters in 1:25.1.

Lookslikeachpndale followed in second most of the mile until giving way to Marion Maurader, who went first-up after the half and presented a mild challenge to Crazy Wow, which resulted in a second-place finish, 1-3/4 lengths behind the winner.

Lookslikeachpndale held for third with Homicide Hunter (the supplemented entry) making the final by taking fourth. Resolve was sharp late, coming up the rail with a rush to finish fifth and just make it into the final.

Crazy Wow paid $5.20 to win.

And.....

NY-Breds shine in Breeders Crown Elims.

Youaremycandygirl captured the second elimination for 2-year-old pacing fillies with an eye-catching 1:51 victory. Yannick Gingras guided the daughter of American Ideal-Sweet Lady Jane to the score.

Stablemate Strong Opinion and Matt Kakaley bolted to the :26.2 opening quarter lead but Youaremycandygirl, the 1-9 betting choice, shunned an early tuck and drove to take command between the first- and second-quarter mark. From that point the Ron Burke-trained filly cruised to victory easily, holding off runner-up Reign On Me by a half-length.

Dean Gillette photo

A $150,000 yearling purchase from last fall's Harrisburg auction, Youaremycandygirl is owned by W J Donovan.

Youaremycandygirl scored in 1:51 in her Breeders Crown elimination.

Me) and I asked her. She's a very honest filly."

"She was a little excited tonight," said Gingras after the race. "I heard the other filly (Reign On

Youaremycandygirl won for the sixth time in eight career starts, which includes an impressive score in the She's A Great Lady at Mohawk.

Joining Youaremycandygirl in next Friday's Breeders Crown finale for juvenile pacing fillies will be Reign On Me, along with Strong Opinion, Pueblo Blue Chip and Im With Her.

The overwhelming betting favorite, Youaremycandygirl paid $2.20 to win.